

By command of their majesties, WILLIAM & JOANNE, KING & QUEEN OF THE WEST, is by this charter created the order of the Golden Poppy, to do honor to those who have emerged victorious in the Arts & Sciences competition of the Kingdom of the West.

It shall be the duty of the members of this order, in the year following their admission to the order, to give instruction to all who would learn from them of those arts and of those sciences in which they are particularly skilled, this instruction to be given in the form of classes & seminars which will be held at Kingdom events, and to aid in the running of the Arts & Sciences competition.

It shall be the privilege of the members of this order to rank in precedence with the counts and the countesses in the Kingdom of the West.

Each twelfth night, the victor in the Arts & Sciences competition of that year shall be admitted to the order.

Each new member of the order shall signify, by voice and by sign manual, that they accept fully the duties & privileges of this order.

By our hands this fifth day of May, in the nineteenth year of the Kingdom of the West,

William
WILLIAM, KING OF THE WEST

Joanne
JOANNE, QUEEN OF THE WEST
